

END OF SECOND TERM EXAMINATION

SUBJECT: ENGLISH LANGUAGE

CLASS: B.S. 4

NAME:

DATE:

From alternative lettered A to C, choose the one which is the adverb of the following sentences

1. Soon we arrived in Lagos

A. arrived B. soon C. Lagos

2. I cut my finger yesterday

A. yesterday B. finger C. cut

3. A goat was grazing here

A. here B. grazing C. goat

4. I can't find him anywhere

A. him B. find C. anywhere

5. We will have a few visitors tonight

A. tonight B. visitor C. few

Form alternatives lettered A to C, choose the one which is the verb in the following sentences

6. Bernard jumped over the wall

A. over B. Bernard C. Jumped

7. Alice went to Kumasi yesterday

A. Kumasi B. went C. yesterday

8. When I was on my way coming, I killed a snake

A. killed B. snake C. when

9. Mr. Abass is weeding his farm

A. Mr. Abass B. farm C. weeding

10. The musician sang all the night

A. sang B. night C. the musician

From alternative A to C, choose the one which is the pronoun in the following sentences

11. They were fighting

A. fighting B. they C. were

12. On our way coming, we saw the headmaster

A. our and we B. our C. we

13. Where is my phone?

A. is B. my C. phone

14. I saw you but you was busy doing marking.

A. saw B. I and you C. marking

15. Don't write my name on the sheet

A. sheet B. write C. my

From alternative lettered A to C, choose the one which is an adjective in the following sentences

16. Clay is finer than sand

A. sand B. clay C. finer

17. Karikari is the tallest of all the boys

A. tallest B. boys C. Karikari

18. Call the boy who is wearing the white shirt for me

A. wearing B. shirt C. white

19. James is the clever person in the whole class

A. clever B. person C. class

20. The teacher beated all thee class

A. class B. beated C. the teacher

SECTION B

Answer one question

1. Describe yourself

2. Describe your best friend

SECTION C: COMPREHENSION

Read the following passage carefully and answer the question that follow

Agya Konto was a farmer. He lived in a small town called Bomfa. He had two cocoa farms. He lived in the town with his two children. He had a gun and sometimes went hunting with his dog, Poga. For some time now, Poga have very lazy. Any time they went on hunting he would disappear and go home. Konto bought a dog chain. He chained Poga. He pulled Poga along when he was going to farm. As soon as Konto removed the chain, Poga would ran away. It would come home and sleep. When Poga was hungry, he would go where people throw rubbish away. That was where Paga would find food to eat. Poga sometimes went to the butchers shop. It stole pieces of meat and bones on the floor. Poga also went to the market to look for food..

Answer the following questions

1. Where did Agya Konto live?
2. How many children did he have?
3. What did Konto do to Poga when going to farm?
4. Where did Poga when it was hungry?
5. What did Poga do at the butchers shop?

